EOLE WINS THE NAVESINK EXCELLENT BACING IN MONMOUTH PARK OVER A HEAVY TRACK.

Results that Passied the Talent and Saddened the Bookmakers - Fineus Histed - The Hurdle Race Pays the Largest Bividend. Seven races were reeled off in Monmouth Park yesterday before the usual throng of thousands. The track was heavy, especially on the turns and backstretch, making the selection of winners difficult and uncertain. The talent suffered heavily in most of the races, and the majority of the bookmakers were out of pocket on the day's ventures. The unfortunate starter, Jacob Pincus, failed again to give en-tire satisfaction. In the gentlemen's race, where the starters were limited to three, backers of Harry Mann were unkind enough to hiss simply because their horse was several lengths behind when Pincus dipped his flag.

The race of the day was the Navesink handicap, a sweepstakes for all ages at $50 each, half forfeit, with $1,000 added, $250 to second, one mile and a half. Thirty-nine nominations fur-nished these starters: F. Gebhard's Eole, 128 pounds: G. L. Lorillard's Aelia, 113; J. McMahon's Frankie B., 98, and D. D. Withers's Renegade, 27. Eole was a strong favorite in the betting at $250; Renegade sold at $140; Aella, $70. and Frankie B., $20. Frankie B. led for a quarter of a mile, Aella second. Donohue holding Lole at the tail of the string. Frankie B. was of no account after the first quarter. Aelia taking the land and passing into the even mile with a length of daylight between Eole. At three-quarters of a mile from the start Eole had closed the gap, and was racing under a pull at Aelia's heels, Renegade lapping Eole to the saddle. Along the backstretch Eole inpped Acila, Billy Donohue still stretch Eole lapped Aella, Billy Donohue still having the horse well in hand. In the lower turn Eole was given his head, and the manner in which he passed Aella showed that the race was over. Eole finished in a canter three lengths in front of Aella, Renegade twenty lengths belind, and Frankie B. a furlong away. Time, 2:42. Muttads, $19.5.

The race of one mile and an eighth, for a purse of $500, for three-year-olds and unward, brought to the post D. D. Withers's Duplex, 108 pounds; P. Lorillard's Amazon, 99; the same owner's Nimrod, 91; G. L. Lorillard's Trafaigar, 91; H. J. Woodford's Ida B., 103%; J. P. Dawes 8 Chipola, 99, and Hopson Brothers' Dellah, 86.

gar. 91; H. J. Woodford's Ida B., 1934; J. P. Dawes's Chipola, 93, and Hopson Brothers' Delilah, 86.

Dupley was the favorite at $100; Amazon and Trafalgar, $40 each; Delilah, $40; field, $30.

A close and exciting race followed a lairly even start, with Duplex breaking out at the head of the bunch, Ida B. and Amazon also at the front. Positions changed in the first fullong, Chipola leading past the stand, Duplex at her neck, and the others in the cluster. A hot race along the backstrotch gave the lead to Trafalgar, but Amazon wrung it from him at the hulf-mile pole. Duplex racing strongly in second place. Amazon relatived the lead until the swir! into the straight, where McKenny called upon Duplex for the final effort, and the son of King Ernest responded, winning a length in front of Amazon. Delilah third, three lengths away, and the others beaten back. Time, 2:91%, Mutanis, $14.50.

A snug field of two-year-olds appeared in a rush of three-quarters of a mile for a purse of $500. The starters were J. T. Williams's Laura Gould, by Pat Mailoy, 104 ibs.; W. Lakeland's John Ledford by Glenlyon, 100; J. Walden's Bine Bell, by Narragansett, 92; Callahan & Co.'s Miss Brewster by Nioringbok, 92; J. E. Kelly's colt and Bue Bell, $30 each.

The flag dipped to a straggling start, Miss Brewster leading by two lengths, Laura Gould two shead of John Ledford, the others also stringing out, and Kelly's colt irritually left at the post, The positions of the horses resembled a flaish more than a send off. Miss Brewster had around the lower turn, with Laura Gould lapped to the rack as they whirled into the straight for the home run, Laura Gould forged ahead with the top load, Billy Donohue sending her nast the post four lengths ahead of loanthe, Miss Brewster there, Three lengths between second and third. Time, 1:194. Mutuals, $24.75.

The winning daughter of Pat Malloy and Fanchen received no bids above her entered price of $2.400.

A mile dush for a handicap sweepstakes for hree-year-olds, at $25 each, with $500 added, 100 to see and, brought to the post J. E. Kelly's Phurles, 108 pounds; Chinn & Morgan's Markand, 103; Mr. Kelso's Heel-and-Toe, 90; Blohm & Co.'s Lena, 85; H. J. Woodford's Harry Mann, 15, and W. R. Babcock's Lizzie Mack, 85. Thurles sold favorite at $150; Heel-and-Toe, 110; Markland, $95; Lizzie Mack, $55; Harry Mann, $10.

$110: Markiand, $95; Lizzie Mack, $55; Harry Mann, $10.

Markiand, Heel-and-Toe, and Harry Mann had the best of the start, Thurles falling to move up with the group. Markiand opened a length of daylight around the turn, doubling the gap to the quarter nole. Along the backstretch J. Donohue gained on the leader with Heel-and-Toe, lapping him to the neck at the helf mile. The light waged fiercely between these two up to the last furiong. Thurles having in the mean time pushed through and joined the leaders. Heel-and-Toe proved the fleetest at the finish, winning six lengths shead. Time, 1:47. Mutuals, $17.80.

A race of one mile and an eighth for a purse

A race of one mile and an eighth for a purse of $500 for three-year-olds and unward, selling allowances, was joined in by H. J. Woodford's Barnum, 113; J. F. Kelly's Chonmal, 111; Cridge & Co.'s Col. Watson, 105; W. T. Glisner's Keno, 104; J. Walden's Antrim, 95; J. McMahon's Mary Corbett, 93; and J. T. Williams's Pearl Thorne, 90.

m, the favorite, brought $100 in the Keno, $30; Clonmel, $50; Mary Corbett irl Thorne, $40 each; Col. Watson, $30; 1, $20. and Pearl Thorne, $40 each; Col. Watson, $30; Barnum, $20; Starting in close order, Keno showed first in the bunch, but was soon held back by Shauer. A snug race followed, Clonmel, Antrim, and Mary Corbett leading in turn to the backstretch, where Shauer let Keno loose and gained first place again. The fight was stubborn to the finish, where Keno won by a length, Clonmel second, with Pearl Thorne at his finaks, Mary Corbett lapping, fourth. Time, 2:02, Mutuals, $22.50.

Keno was entered at $750, but his owner was forced to bid $1,065 to retain his horse.

The spin of seven furlongs, for the Billow Handican, a sweepstakes for all ages, gentlemen riders, at $35 each, play or pay, $300 added, $75 to second, drew to the post Rochester, 143 pounds (Mr. Holmes); Pasha, 140 (Mr. Stone), and Harry Mann, 135 (Mr. Harwood).

Rochester was the favorite, at $50; Pasha, $40; Harry Mann, $30.

Mr. Holmes dashed away with the lead on Rochester. Pasha second, Harry Mann dronping back out of the race from the start.

Mr. Holmes dashed away with the lead on Rochester. Pasha second, Harry Mann droping back out of the race from the start. Rochester opened a gap of two lengths in the first furloug but Mr. Stone collared him along the backstretch, and a neck-and-neck race ensued to the straight, where Mr. Holmes began to forge ahead. Rochester won by two open lengths. Pasha fifteen in front of Harry Mann. Time, 1:384. Mutuals, $8.85.

GREAT DAY FOR THE DWYER BROS. Photo Stable Capturing Three of the Four

Sanatoga, July 26 .- This was a great day for the Dwyer Brothers, their stable cap-turing three of the four events on the programme. The first race was won by Bootjack, while Miss Woodford had practically a walkover for the Alabama Stakes, and George Kinney had a diagracefully beaten field behind him at the finish of the mile and five furlongs. Some of the followers of the Brooklyn stable were uncharitable enough to wish they had made an entry in the fourth race, so that the red and blue could have made a clean sweep. The three Brooklyn horses were favorites, and Disturbance, who won the last race, was also a favorite, so the bookmakers were happy. The weather was bright and warm, the track fast, and the betting lively.

The first race was a mile dash for a purse of $500, of which $100 to the second, the entrance money, $15 each, to be divided between second and third. The starters were Carson, 110 pounds; Bootjack, 117; Buccaneer, 104; Lord money, $15 each, to be divided between second and third. The starters were Carson, 110 pounds; Bootjack, 117; Buccaneer, 104; Lord Lyon, 113, and Monarch, 101. Postguard and Slaceum were scratched. Pools—Bootjack, $250; Monarch, $125; the field, $55.

Buccaneer got away in the lead, Bootjack second, Lord Lyon third, a neck apart, the others close up. On the turn Bootjack took the lead and at the first quarter post Monarch was running second. Buccaneer third, under a pull, and Lord Lyon last. Along the backstretch Bootjack Increased his lead another length and Monarch fell away to last place. Beginning at the half mile post Buccaneer and Lord Lyon made play for Bootjack, and when well into the straight they came at him with a rush that kept McLaughling riding all the way to the wire. Bootjack won by two lengths. Buccaneer finished second by a short head. Lord Lyon third Carson fourth, Monarch last, rulled up. Time, 1:424. French pools paid $6.90.

For the Alabama Stakes, for fillies three years old, one mile and a furlong, the startiers were Miss Woodford, 113 lbs.; Vera, 113; and Bessie, 113. Pools, Miss Woodford, out: Vera, $100; and Bessie, $45. The trie started on level torms, Miss Woodford at the pole and Bessie on the outside. They kent aligned almost to the stand, when Miss Woodford forged ahead slightly and Hossie fell a length away, Vera clung to Miss Woodford's withers to the third furlong post and then began to quit. At the half mile post Miss Woodford was leading two lengths, and Vera was leading Bessie easily hended her. Miss Woodford's withers to the same distance. At the head of the straight Vera went all to pieces, and Bessie easily hended her. Miss Woodford won by four lengths, Bessie second, two lengths in front of Vera. Time, 1:27%. French pools paid $5.60.

Third Race—Purse $600, of which $100 and the entrance money, $15 cach, to the see and horse; one mile and five furlongs. Starters: Baccara! S6 pounds; George Kinney, $300 Drake Carter, $180; General Monroe, $29; field, $30.

Mistral was scratched. Pools-Disturbance, $125; Talleyrand, $55; Brunswick, $45; Alla B., $20.

At the fifth attempt a good start was made. Disturbance was first away. Alla B. second. Brunswick third, and Talleyrand last, a neck apart. This was the order of running up the chute. On the turn there was a general closing, and a blanket could have covered the field until the three-quarter post was reached, when Alla B. began to faiter. Brunswick led into the straight, but Disturbance headed him a moment later, and, coming on, won in hand by three lengths, Brunswick second, two lengths in front of Talleyrand, Alta B. last. Time, 1:175; French pools paid $3.80.

Base Ball Yesterday. Another close contest took place at Washing-The first innings settled the contest, the Anthracites getting two runs in from three bases given on called balls and two single hits. Not another run could they score in the game. The Brooklyns failed to score until the ninth innings, when Greenwood's hit, and his excel-ient hase running after a dropped fly, enabled the Brook-lyns to escape a Chicago. The score was:

MR. SAVIN'S FIGHT ON THE O. W. SOFA

Putting his Piet in Mr. Thieriet's Pace and his Elbow in Mr. Joe Taylor's Smile. The monotony of a dull market in the Stock Exchange was enlivened just before the close yesterday afternoon by the conduct of Mr. Frank Savin. The circumstances were, according to all accounts, as follows:

About half past 2 o'clock Mr. Savin was sitting upon a sofa at the side of the Board room where the transactions in Ontario and Western Railroad stock are made. He sat there because he wanted to make a trade in the stock, and was waiting for a market. He was in pacific company, for Mr. Joe Taylor, a rotund and acquiescent person, who is an hairloom to the Board from long ago, and who now confines his ability and energies to a brokerage business in the aimost dormant O. acquiescent person, who is an heiricom to the Board from long ago, and who now confines his ability and energies to a brokeringe business is the almost dormant 0. W. stock, sat beside him.

This pleasing association of the lion and the lamb was not observed by their brother brokers until a moment or two after Mr. F. M. Thieriot, of the banking house of L. Von Hoffmann & Co., had addressed himself to Mr. Frank Savin.

Mr. Thieriot, like Mr. Frank Savin, is a man of about medium stature, and they are of about the same age, namely, 35 years. Mr. Thieriot is a Frenchman, and possessed of the proverbial crurtesy of his nation. Mr. Thieriot inquired of Mr. Frank Savin the price of 0. W. stock. Mr. Frank Savin answer contained no satisfactory information, and, in fact, is said to have been uncivil. Mr. Thieriot then addressed his inquiry to Mr. Joe Taylor. Before the latter could answer Mr. Frank Savin interrupted the conversation in a runner that led Mr. Thieriot to remark that he was not speaking to Mr. Savin, but to a gentleman.

Thereupon Mr. Frank Savin unlimbered. He called Mr. Thieriot a Jew.

Simultaneously with the concustion of his reply no imped from his seat, and Mr. Joe Taylor cased to smile, probably for the first time in his life. The cause of these developments was Mr. Frank Savin's and Mr. Thieriot's face, which it barely touched, doing no serious damage. The clow of the former caught in Mr. Joe Taylor resided that Mr. Joe Taylor reinted them modestly, both so far as his part in the conflict was converned and in constiting much of the language that was a his, in-pury by brokers who was maded the data to the Board reinted the ball it. ### HANLAN WINS AGAIN.

Oswego Falls, July 26 .- At exactly 5 'clock Edward Haulan, Hosmer of Boston, and George Lee pulled up to the starting point on Lake Neakwanta. A minute later they received the word, "Go," and started down the lake.
The contestants have been at the Lewis House n Fulton, across the river from this village, Yesterday afternoon they were out on the lake or a spin. No definite arrangements had been made for the division of the $800 stake money. although it had been advertised that the winner would receive $600 and the second $200.

ner would receive $600 and the second $200. The men got into a violent quarrel over the division, and could not agree. This morning they disputed again at the hotel. Lee became very excited, and accused Hanlan of selfishness and unfair dealing. He said: Ned, you're crocked; you aren't a square man." Hanlan called Lee a class of Hanlan of cwing him money which Lee could not collect. Their judges consuited with them, and agreed that the winner should receive 50 per cent, the second 30 per cent, and the third 20 per cent. Hanlan wanted 50 per cent, whether he won or not, but this was not allowed.

The afternoon was very hot, but for three hours nearly 3,000 people stood in the sun on the banks of the lake waiting for the contest to begin. Hanlan led from the start, with Hosmer second and Lee third. In drawing for position Hanlan had the outside. Hosmer next, with Lee nearest the shore. The course was down the lake three-quarters of a mile, and the track was traversed twice and back, making three miles. Hanlan came in in 21 minutes 30 seconds. the lake three-quarters of a mile, and the track was traversed twice and back, making three miles, Hanlan came in in 21 minutes 30 seconds, Hosmer two lengths behind in 21 minutes 32 seconds, and Lee in 21 minutes 33 seconds. The race is regarded as a cut-and-dried money making affair. There was little betting, and that was confined to Hosmer and Lee for second place. About the only excitement was caused by confidence men, who pocketed a considerable amount of the hard earnings of the agriculturists present. Mayor Herman T. Michaels of Syracuse was the referee. The judges were E. W. Mitchell of Elmira, Henry Sylverton of Boston and Mr. Chase of Syracuse, Special trains ran from Syracuse and Oswego. Negotiations are pending for a regatta on Onondaga Lake, one mile north of here, early in September. Courtney, Lee, and Hosmer have agreed to take part, and Amateurs Larman, Dabinette, Henley, Sexton, and Drum will also row. Hanlan, Lee, and Hosmer left for St. Paul, Minn., this evening. Hanlan this afternoon again signified his intention of rowing in the Watkins regatta.

A GREAT SALE OF COTTONS. Biles & Pabyan Dispose of 19,000 Packages

Prosperous-looking men climbed the stairs of the big granite building 64 and 66 White street yesterday morning as 11 o'clock drew near, and sat on camp stools in the auction room of Wilmerding, Hoguet & Co., fanning themselves and studying the contents of big yellow-covered catalogues. There were no camp stools for late comers, and they blocked the passageways or porched on the tops of huge wooden cases packed with cotton goods. At 11 o'clock there were nearly 1,000 persons in the assemblage. They came from all parts of the country, in response to circulars sent out months ago announcing the trade sale by Biss, Fabyan & Co. of 11.000 packages of standard cotton goods. It was one of the biggest cotton sales ever held, and the first made by Biss, Fabyan & Co. since their large sale in 1871.

As II o'clock struck a smiling man in secr-sucker rushed up a short flight of stairs at one side of the room, and took his station in front of a tall desk. Simultaneously six clerks, who of a tail dosk. Simultaneously six clerks, who had been leaning on two enormous desks that flanked the gentleman in seersucker, pulled six pens from behind six right ears, threw open account books, and prepared to write.

Auctioneer Wilmerding took a pencil from the pocket of his seersucker coat. Mr. Bilss sprang up beside him, adjusted his goldrimmed glasses, and dangled a sample of crochet damask quilting invitingly before the throng, and the big sule besan. It kept on all day. The auctioneer shouted words unintelligible to the casual listener, and havers sprang to their feet, yelled, and aimed their collective forelingers at the auctioneer. The whole room appeared to be in a fever of excitement, though most likely it wasn't.

After an hour of the racket there was an hour's calm. Porters began to unpack capacious wicker baskets that were shot up in the elevator. Thousands of Iresh sandwiches were excavated from the baskets and pited in pyramids on a long table. Mailet blows echoed in another corner, and a moment later overflowing glasses of lager were ranged beside the sandwiches. The porters dipped long ladles into tail cans and drew up delicious iced coffee. After the lunch had been vanquished bidding began anew, and thousands of ticks, shirtings, cheviots, checks, ducks, ginghams, quilts, towels, and sans went one after the other at good prices. The figures rolled up in the clerks books until a round million of dollars had been reached and passed.

At the close of the sale Mr. Bliss said:

"We held this sale because we had on hand a larger stock than we cared to carry with the dull market of the last sixty days. We also had in view the establishment of a scale of prices for the fall. Some of the prices obtained to-day were low, but taken all together they are good. The sale itself is perfectly satisfactory. It will probably produce about $1,500,000. The attendance was specially gratifactory. It will probably produce about $1,000, but the active bidding on some lines induced us to sell additional lots." had been leaning on two enormous deaks that

LOBSIERS NEVER SO POPULAR.

The Continually Rising Price No Bar to Largely Increased Sales. The demand for lobsters is greater than it ever has been within the memory of the most ancient and veracious fishermen. July is the month when the boiled and biushful crustacean is most conspicuous in the fish markets, and, in the form of salad, is obtainable at nearly every city and seasids hotel.

"The demand for the lobster this season," said Mr. Middleton of Middleton, Carman & Co., "is greater than the supply. We have sold Co., "is greater than the supply. We have sold great quantities within the last month. The retail prices are twelve cents for holled and ten cents for itye loisters. They seem to be constantly growing in favor and increasing in price. A decan years ago they could be bought for just one-half what they bring now. A large propertion of the yeariy catch at Cane Cod is canned and shipped to the South and West. The canneries are near the lishing grounds become exhausted. The canned meat is often used in hotel salads. It is a little tougher than ment just from the shell, and is several cents cheaper. Fish dealers sell very little of it."

At Mr. Eugene G. Blackford's establishment it was said that more lobsters had been sold this season than ever before. Mr. Blackford had disposed of about twice as many lobsters as of any other kind of fish. On July 3 he had sold over 3,000, and in the week ending July 8 the sales had been unprecedentedly large.

DENVER, July 26.-A fitting finale to Tues ay's magnificent military pageant of the Grand Army Lincoln Post of Topeka, Kan. Twenty thousand people witnessed the display. The encampment held a business meeting yesterday. Commander-in-Chief Paul Vander-voort delivered an address, in which he said that during Friday morning. It is said that Gen. Barnum has the support of 21 out of 26 of the New York delegates. There was a general jollification at the camp last night. The "Sherman Humbers" paraded and the Flambeau Cub repeated Tuesday night's exhibition. Every excursion frain to the mountains is loaded with Grand Army men. The whole city will be brilliantly illuminated to-night.

Capture of a Gung of Highwayman.

Pittsвuвон, July 26.—The United States Se ret Service officers and officers of the Pennsylvania Railroad, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and city of Pittshurgh made a very important capture last night of a gang of highwaymen. Some time ago the Post Office at Braddock was robbed. Then several wall-known at Braddock was robbed. Then several wall-known citizens were knocked down with sandbags and robbed. A reign of terror set in, and crims after crime was committed. The unbires were warted of their impending several and field, but last night John G. Gordon an expect and R. Gearney, a railroader, were arrested at Chuberland, Md. and Albert Cruzan, a railroader, and John B. Suckley, a horse doctor, were arrested at kir John Rub, near Cumberland. They were ironed and brought here on a special train last night. The evidence is conclusive against them.

Did the Sen Serpent Climb Ningarat

STURGEON BAY, Wis., July 26.—A fisherman named James Cady says that about sunrise he was standing on the shore of Bailey's Harbor when he saw standing on the shore of Bailey's Harbor when he saw something like a log floating on the surface of the water. He was about to go out in a boat and pick it up when it began to move, displaying a buge flat head several fest above the surface and emitting a horrible hissing sound. He began throwing stones at it, when the strange reptile made toward him at considerable speed. Recoming thoroughly frightened, the fisherman ran toward his house. Looking back he saw the reptile disappear be-neath the water. Cady says it was thirty feet long and two feet in disancter. Two citizens of Green Bay made a similar statement on last Tuesday.

Sulcide of a Well-known Evangelist. NORTH WEYMOUTH, Mass., July 26,-Daniel B. Phillips, a well-known evangelist, committed suicide nere last night at about 9 o'clock. He went to his room, but soon atterward came down in manget smir and started on a run up the street. After going some distance he suddenly turned and fled in an opposite direction. He was followed by a crowd, by means of foot prints in the dust, for some distance until the trail was lost. A vigilant search was kept up all night, and at about 6 o'clock this morning the body was found supended from a tree in a fleid. He had used his might shirt as a rope. He was once connected with the Fulton Street Mission in Brooklyu, N.Y. He leaves a widow.

Towksbury Whitewashed. BOSTON, July 26.—The Senate accepted the majority Tewksbury report this forenoon without a word of debate, by a strict party vote. It refused, also by a party vote, to admit the House bill to regulate the disposal of the bodies of papers. This finishes all the Tewksbury beatens before the Legislature.

RI-TREASURER POLK CONVICTED.

NASHVILLE, July 26 .- The jury in the case of ex-Treasurer Polk this morning brought in a verdict of guilty of embezzlement, fixing the penalty at imprisonment in the penitentlary for twenty years, and imposing a fine to the full amount of the embezziement, $366,540.

Ex-Treasurer Polk is 51 years old. He is a graduate of West Point, and served four years on the frontier. He was a Captain of artillery in the Confederate army in Chessham's division. He lost a leg at the battle of Shilloh, and afterward served on the staff of Gen. Leonidas Polk, to whom he was related. After the war he resided on a farm near Bolivar, Tean., until elected Treasurer, six years ago, He is a nephew of the late President Polk, has a large family, and occupied a high social position in Nashville and throughout the State, He would be helr to the Polk estate in case of the death of Mrs. Polk, widow of the late President Polk. After the embezziement from the State Treasury was discovered Polk field, but was canotured in Texas just as he was about to cross the border into Mexico.

Polk had been in San Antonio several days, and while there took no pains to conceal his identity. At length, learning that he was being pursued, he started for the Mexican border, secompanied by one Cameron. A young man named Cook was the conductor of the sleeping coach they entered at San Antonio, When the train stopped at Webb Station, Polk and Cameron quit the car, and mounted horses in waiting for them. Send on Joe Sheely to help me; I am after this man!" yelled Cook to the conductor of the train, and he then hastened after the fugitives. Polk and Cameron rode through the chaparrai toward Laredo, and on reaching the outskirts of the town made a circuit round it and toward the life Grande, which they intended to cross. Cook toiled on after them, and overtook the fugifives on the bank of the life Grande just as they were making preparations to cross. He hid in the bushes to deliberate on the best method to capture them, He then recollected that he was unarmed. The situation was a desperate one, but Cook, with the brawery of a lion, jumped from behind a bush suddenly and said: "Gentlemen, you are my prisoners." Instantly two revolvers were levelled at him, but he never flinched, as he quietly added: "You had better surrender,

By GEORGE TICKNOR OURTIS.

With Two Steel Plate Portraits. 2 vols., 8vo, Cloth, Gilt Tops and Uncut Edges, $6.

The true history of Mr. Buchanan's Administration has, up to the present time, been a profound secret; for, while an immense deal has been written about it, no writer has had any documentary authority for his estimate of the motives, intentions, and prevailing counsels of the President and Cabinet in the trying times which preceded the war. * * * It is of the highest impor-tance that that history should be known. The time has ong passed when, from political feeling, any one could desire to suppress the truth, and now all men will be Buchanan was in the habit of making brief and clear memoranda of daily conversations, interviews, and oc currences. He preserved all important correspondence. The material for his biography is thus ample and the character of the book cannot but be of the most absorbing interest. Its revelations will undoubtedly surprise partisan feeling. In any event, the biography of Jame Buchanan covers the most important period of our his-tory since the Revolution; and knowing, as we do, the material which he left to be used at the proper time, we ne .. no doubt that Mr. Curtis has made such use of it that the publication will throw clearer light on history than any or all of the books which have attempted to show how the United States was led into the war of
